RACE TRACK RIOTS CAUSE GRAVESEND CLUB TO CALL ON BINGHAM FOR MORE POLICEMEN

Favorites Win First Four Races on Gravesend Card, and Would Have Cost Bookmakers Thousands if Betting Had Been Allowed.

CREDIT BASIS WAS ONLY WAY WAGERS WERE MADE AT TRACK

Harrigan, King Castle, Armiak and Big Chief, All at Short Odds, Come in Ahead While Public Sits Idle in Grand Stand.

GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, June 12.—The betting system was plainly crippled at the track this afternoon and this is all that saved the bookmakers from heavy losses. If the old conditions had prevailed, the public would have been big winners, for including the running of the fourth race, a mile and a quarter handicap for all ages, four favorites had won in a row—Harrigan, King Castle, Armiak and Big Chief. All were played more or less on the credit basis, but this was limited to well known players.

The fourth race was really the feature, bringing out among others Frank Gill, Jack McGinnis' Suburban candidate. Frank Gill didn't win, but he ran a good race for the first out. He went along with Big Chief all the way and at the far turn appeared as if he would beat the favorite. They ran from there to the stretch on even terms, but there Frank Gill croaked and Juggler, who had trailed the field all the way, closing gradually, forced his way into second place. Jubilee running third all the way also began to close in the stretch. Big Chief all the while had a safe lead and the drive through the stretch developed into a race for the second and third money between Juggler and Frank Gill. Juggler proved the best and got the place in the last fifty yards from Jubilee.

"Run for Purse Only."
The success of favorites caused some comment. "With the ring practically out of business, they were running on the level," said one regular. "They are running for the purse only now."
Call Off Sale of Horses.
The day was perfect for racing, and by past time the crowd had reached its regular proportions. Betting was done on the credit system, and anybody willing to take a chance got his money down. The canvas sheets were hoisted as usual around the paddock turn to prevent the poolroom interests getting the results.

The sale of Newcastle stable, announced for to-morrow, has been indefinitely postponed, and the annual sale of J. B. Haggin's yearlings has been called off altogether. It was said at the track that Mr. Haggin would send these yearlings, 150 of them, to be sold at auction in England as soon as he can arrange for their shipment.

The first race had but one scratch, Catherine Simpson, leaving eight two-year-olds to go to the post. Harrigan was made a 6 to 5 choice on the program of most of the layers with Uncle Jim and Preceptor about even on second choices. After some little delay at the post Cassidy got them off to a good break. Preceptor and Uncle Jim out on the pace and ran like a team to the stretch turn. J. Lee laid third with Harrigan.

When they rounded the turn for home the weight began to tell on Preceptor and he dropped back, beaten. Harrigan then ranged alongside Uncle Jim and the two fought it out. Harrigan finally drew away in the last hundred yards and at the end won easily. Uncle Jim had on gamely to win second place on the last lap. In the drive home on the flat, however, King Castle came on the most speed and lasted to the
